

Sports & development OUR CONTRIBUTION TO THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS

AFD Group's commitments in the Sport for Development sector

Since 2012

invested in 69 projects (excluding micro-projects)

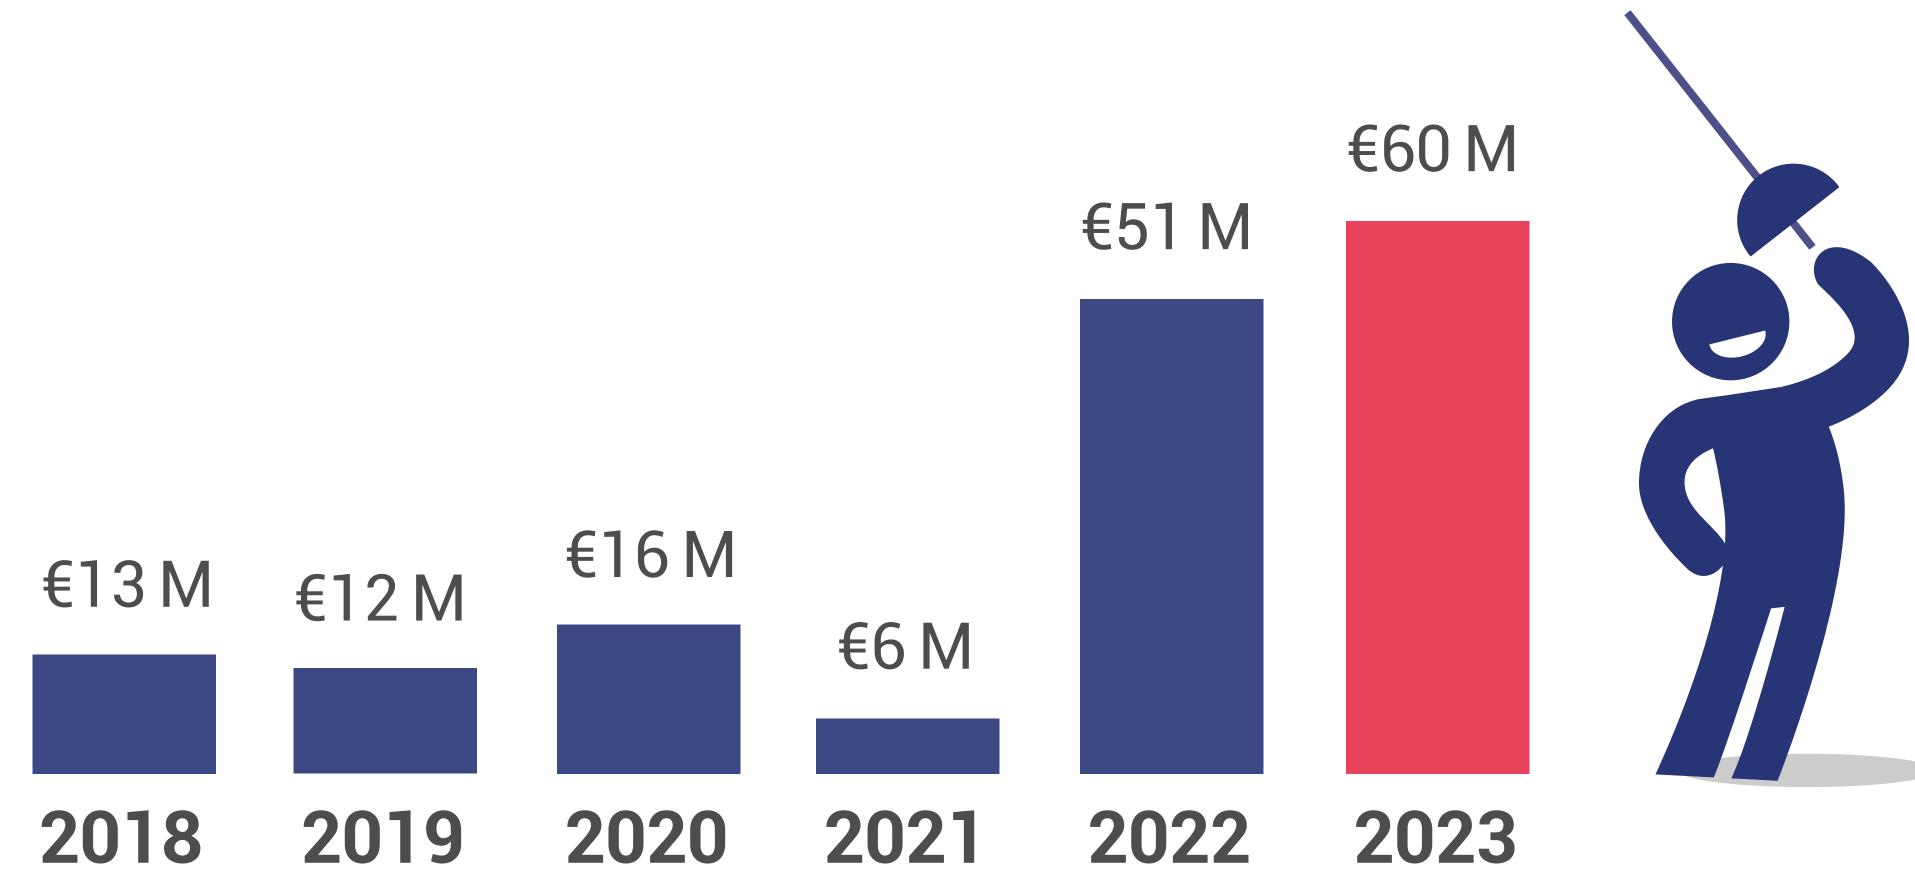

invested in 15 projects

In 2023

Strengthening

Trend in Group commitments

E189 M

the social impact of sports by supporting civil society organizations Support for Sport for Development micro-projects

Development Goals of the investments does protected to reduce multi-dimensional inequalities

Contribution of projects and vocational training in this sector for girls and women, and thus contribute to reducing gender inequalities and sustainable urban planning of investments aim to build or rehabilitate sports facilities that contribute to inclusive of investments aim to increase access to sports activities

81%

of investments use sports as a tool to promote access to quality education of stakeholders in the sports ecosystem of investments support the professionalization

and access to decent work in the sports sector

Africa accounts for 95%

of AFD's commitments in the sports sector Breakdown by region

ASIA AND

Innovative partnerships with key players in the sports movement

By building connections between project funders and initiators through the Sport en Commun platform which has 2,600 member organizations in 52 African countries.

By creating, through the Finance in Common Summit (FiCS), a coalition for Sustainable Development through Sport which encourages all the Public Development Banks to work together to boost investment in the sector.

International

Committee

Olympic

Advancing

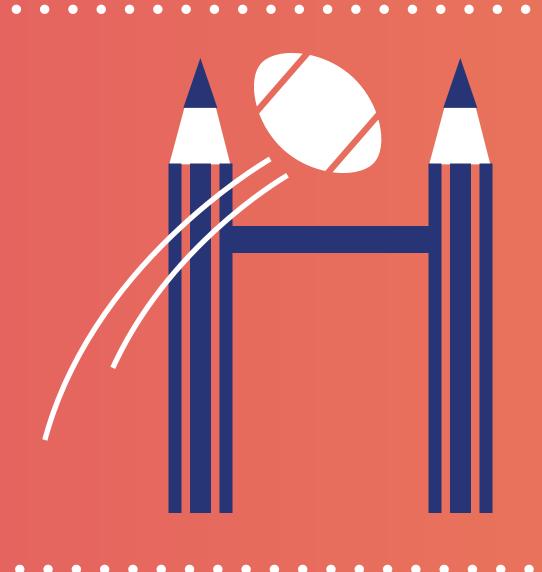

By forging partnerships with internationally renowned sports organizations, French sports federations, and athletes committed to sustainable development.

999

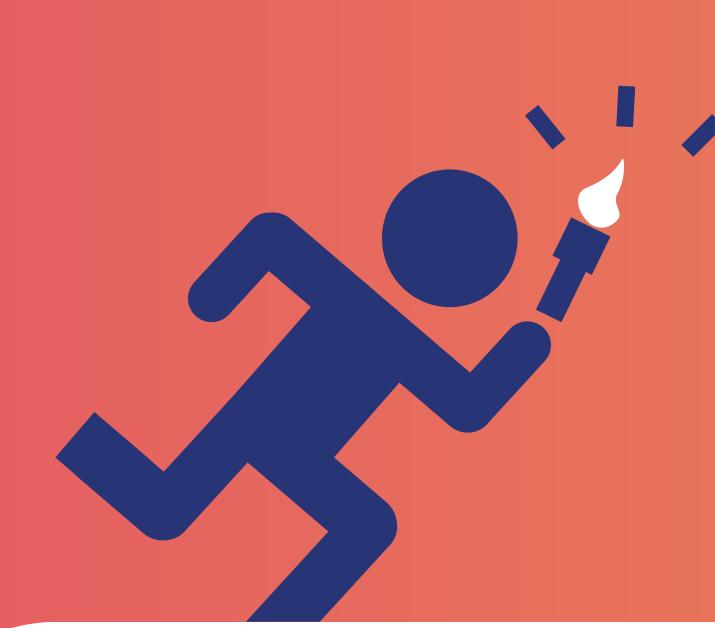

Sport sport as a transformative tool to...

Promote young employment through sports, especially among girls

Use sport as a tool for education and awareness-raising of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs)

Support the legacy strategies of the organizers of major sporting events

AFD x Paris 2024:

Creating a lasting legacy for the Olympic Games projects led by associations and athletes. They are also supporting investment in sports as a sustainable solution to a number of social challenges.

AFD and Paris 2024 are supporting several high-impact

